Captain

I desire to call the attention of the kind commanding to the fact that this regiment has never received the benefit of the discharge of any of its companies, although the regiments - this is the largest regiment in the Brigade, & the only one without a company - I think it indispensably necessary that this unit should be supplied.

I respectfully recommend Private Abram Harris Co. E. of this regiment for the post of Commissary - He has been employed in the Subsistence Department for two years past under Major Harrick, and is eminently fitted by experience, intelligence & integrity for the position - I earnestly recommend his appointment, as I am sure it would be impossible to find one better suited to fill the place.

Your letter containing Remarks to hand to day and I hasten to reply the sum may then be explained. Your statement of can be explained. The accounts were from officers were made out monthly and placed in the hands of the Adjutant of the Regiment as ordered. In about the first of May the Adjutant left and did not collect the accounts. I took them and collected them and turned the figures over to Capt Calloway, Brigade Commissary whose Receipt I sent You, as I had no other way to convey figures I drew from. or but four hundred dollars I always have certified accounts. I tried to keep my papers straight as I had no form to do so and any errors was through a want of a knowledge of the business and can be rectified.

You spoke of two abstracts of Purchases conflicting 30 lbs Bacon $30 as shown and not appearing on my monthly Returns. These were accounts paid to Recruiting officers. The accounts were ordered paid & the substance was used by the Reserve before reaching the Regiment as I did not assign the Rations to the Reserve. I could not place it in my return only as a paid

The items to the Hospital I had to issue to the sick and spend through the Surgeon of the Regiment who I believe I have sent

The Commutation was by order of the Col. commanding the 9 Rations were non commutative officers missing with the Staff officers who were entitled to Rations but had no issue of missing. There of them were with the Col.

I will look over my papers and make out the papers now wish, I had the papers and was discharged the 17th July and am still continued with it but will send the statements as early as I can. I hope this will be satisfactory until you

I would most respectfully call the attention of the Department to the commendation sent in in mid-Augt from these Head Quarters for the appointment of A. G. Warner as Major & Act. Commissary Substitutes of the Brigade. I have the honor to command. He was ordered on duty in that position by Maj. ~~Warner~~ on the 24th of February 1864 and has since been getting up and capacity proving himself to be an efficient able energetic and honest officer. It being in my opinion entirely for the good of the service I respectfully ask that he be commissioned so that he may give good service fully on the discharge of the duties of his office.

of which he has suffered for four months. We further declare our belief that he can not be fit for duty in the field in a period of more than sixty days. We assign as particular reasons why this A. G. Harris should be granted a leave of absence

My dear Sir

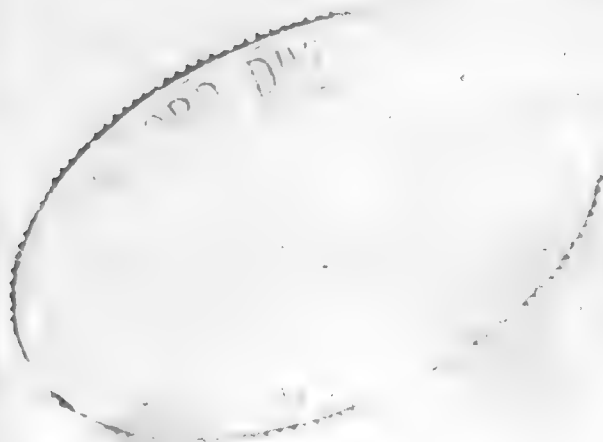

Dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the Board of Directors have decided to purchase the property of the late John Smith, Esq. for the sum of £10,000. The property is situated in the parish of St. Mary, and is of great value.
The purchase money will be paid in three instalments of £3,333 1/3 each. The first instalment has been paid, and the balance will be paid on the 1st of January next.
I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant.

Yours faithfully,
J. H. Smith

Mr. President

Permit me to introduce to your kind attention my old friend Capt. A. H. Harris, a. a. G. who for some time past has been acting as such at the Head Quarters District of the East. Major General D. H. Murray Comdg. a true patriot cannot be found in our Confederacy.

Since April 1861, he was a resident of San Francisco California where he had been since 1858.
But true to his Southern principles being a native of Charleston S. C. sympathizing our present troubles, he left his adopted home and proceeded to New Orleans after a brief sejour with his relatives, he should derat his most ardent defence of our country - answered the call of.
General Beauregard - his first field of Battle was Shiloh, after many engagements with the enemy he found himself in Vicksburg, prior to, and during the siege of that place - was taken prisoner - after being exchanged, at the instance of the late Lieut. General Polk, he proceeded to Richmond for promotion, which he had well earned on the field of Battle as a private soldier, his name was handed in approved, of by you, and confirmed by the Senate to his present position.

His many testimonials as to his gallantry and merit, he has with him and General Maury with whom he now serves has now justly endorsed him to say no more in his favor, I think his appearance speaks more forcibly than words.

If practicable to comply with the desire of Capt Morris.

you will, promote a Gentleman of honor, and a meritorious Soldier.

I am, Sir, with renewed assurances of admiration your obedient
John T. Monroe, Mayor
of New Orleans

With suggestions for

Adj. Dir. Dist. of the Gulf
Mobile Ala. Feb. 2^d 1865

Respectfully forwarded. I take pleasure in commending Capt. Harris to the favorable consideration of the Hon. Secy. of War. He has had much to do with inspection duty. His high character for probity, and his equal devotion to his duties, officially qualify him for a position on the General Inspection Staff and I hope that the Department may make use of his services in such a capacity.

Very truly,
Wm. L. Condo.

Gen. H. H. H. reports that Capt. Harris is well fitted for his position and is a very valuable man.

and also of those recommended for light duty, these Officers to watch the supplies of the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments. I report the same to the Commanding General and to the War Department, whether well stored or neglected, exposed, &c. &c. and make a General Report of the condition of the various Departments in the Fall. -

It is respectfully deemed that some ~~existing~~ legislation and orders modified, so as to carry out the foregoing suggestions, the good of the service would be greatly advanced. -

Trusting that the above remarks will be forwarded some information.

I have the honor to remain Very respectfully, General, Your Obedt. Servant
W. H. Murray
Capt. U. S. A.

Major Genl W. H. Murray Comd'g Dist of the Gulf Mobile, Ala.

General

Mobile, Ala. Jan 7. 24th 1865.

I have the honor to submit the following Suggestions to your government and Superior Consideration and judgment with a view to enhance public good and as presenting the most efficient economical and unconflicting method for preventing existing abuses in the Quartermaster & Commissary Departments and recruiting the depleted ranks of our Army by placing Stragglers & deserters in their proper Commands and curtailing the number of Officers & Men unnecessarily employed in the various Departments. It being Generally supposed that no action which has been taken to make more available.

I propose that for this purpose it will become necessary to establish in each State a Special Inspector for such State whose duty shall consist in inspecting the various offices of the Q. M. Commissary and other Departments ad libitum and to report their inspection semi-monthly to the War Department, where these reports are needed for information & action.
The system of having a Chief Q. M. Agent in each State, with his subordinate Officers for each District, is well planned but unoperative to a great extent, owing to a want of cooperation and energy among the subordinates who must generally be expected often and reported from time to time of their labor, attention or dereliction of duty, abuses &c. &c.

Many men between 18 & 45 years old fit for field service, are employed in these departments when men between 45 & 50 and more will serve as agents can be easily procured.

Officers generally, are not much troubled by the trouble of examining the Medical Agents - Whenever they need the Agents to assist them, they invariably make application for lists regard less of the fitness or usefulness of the men to the general Service - They do try to these applications and request details to be made and are of necessity without first, examining the records of the enrolling Dept. or of the Medical Examining Board, to obtain men from 45 to 50 or more men listed in the 1st Edition of the "Act of Congress" entitled "An Act to organize forces to serve during the War" approved July 17th 1864 - This is done in violation of the grant prohibiting laws and proves detrimental to the Service generally and can be checked -

The number of Officers afloat and of persons passing themselves as such, is almost incredible -

Those belonging to Commands, should be made to rejoin the same, when absent without Authority -

It is believed and perhaps truly, that exempt or men not liable to conscription or military service, are not allowed to be employed in the service of the Government - many cases of this character have presented themselves to the different departments, and the parties have invariably been refused positions which are now filled by men that should be in the same places. -

Enrolling Department.

This department has been for the last twelve months greatly improved, but its independence of other conflicts and confuses considerably with the other departments of the Government, and thus unnecessarily a large number of Officers have to perform a labor which can be attended to by Post Commandants, who are well entitled, as a general thing to the credit of arresting deserters, stragglers and conscripts, and forwarding them to their respective Commands, or turning them over to the enrolling officers for enrollment & subsequent disposition - Therefore there should be a Comd of the Post for each District in each State, as well to carry on its present business, as to take charge of the Enrolling department.
County enrolling Officers should be abolished, as District enrolling Officers have been -

One Cavalry Company of One hundred men in a District can bring up to the eyes of the Post Com^d, all stragglers & deserters & transcripts that may exist in the District, and prove to be a safer mode of operation. — At present County Enrolling Officers depend upon Com^ds of Posts, or be flustered in the interior, owing to their want of force or means to perform the labor. — The only way to secure these deserters stragglers & transcripts is to send them, under guard, to their Commands or to Camps of Instruction as the Case may be. Commandants of Posts will then report to the General of District for the business of Concentration & to the General Commanding the District or Department also for other business. —

Camps of Instruction —

These are badly situated, and are repugnant to all men in consequence of the inconveniences attending their being reported at. — They should be located at points of easier travel & where some accommodation could be had. — This would save the men and the Government unnecessary trouble and expense. —

For instance, three Camps of Instruction for Alabama, might be located as follows:

"One at Montgomery, One at Selma & One at Mobile." to receive men that are sent to it for re-ignition, whether for General Service, in the Reserve force, or as light duty men. — No matters now stand, and it cannot be denied. The men out of every 100 men report to Camp and perhaps never reach any Command and remain constantly afloat, being enrolled and re-enrolled &c. &c. - These Camps to report directly to the General of Resources -

There should be a Camp of Instruction in each State to contain all unassigned Supernumerary Officers and men belonging to the Invalid Corps upon which the Departments could draw, but men found fit for light duty & whose services are needed and applied for in the District in which they have been examined, or in any other, should not be made to report at the Camp for assignment - The application could be made to and the necessity investigated by the Post Comd't and action taken without subjecting the parties to the inconvenience of the Government to the expense of their personal attendance at the Camp -

When a party having been enrolled as a Conscript and examined by a District Examining Board and received for light duty, has been assigned by competent authority to duty in the military service of the Confederacy, and ordered to report to a Commissioned Officer, his status as a Conscript being changed by the order of assignment, he is no longer under the control of the Bureau of Conscription, but under that of the Military Authority proper, in the same manner as if assigned to an organization in the fact, the matter to be different in case of detail for temporary purposes -

Special Inspector

To achieve these objects, namely, to investigate the status of every person within conscript laws, whether he be an Officer, or pretends to be so, a non-Commissioned Officer, a private, or an exempt; - to report upon the manner in which the military laws, orders & regulations are carried out; - to see that all deserters, stragglers and conscripts are sent to their proper posts by all officers, but particularly those in the Conscript Department; - to report upon the business of Post Commandants; - to make continual inspection of their operations and of those of other Government Departments for each State; - to report of the good results or the bad management of their business to the War Department, direct, and a copy to the General of Reserves, and report to the respective Generals Com'dg the District or Department, such part of the report as may be necessary; - A Special Officer of Inspection should be designated with three assistants for each State, who would have the power to detain such men as may be employed in violation of law and existing regulations and put others in their places who may be found upon the books of the office - The names to be taken and an account kept of all imper-manent Officers then sent to it for distribution

Surg. General S. P. Moore,

Sir,

The movements of the Army operating in East Tenn., now in progress, and anticipated, require the occupation of Marion with hospitals. I am pleased to inform you that a Quarters Master has been assigned to that place, but it is destitute of a Commissary Affair. I respectfully request that one be ordered to that Post for duty. The Comdr. of ^{the} fourth has probably more supplied than any other, in all this section of Country. If not, in compatible with the desires of the Commissary General, the assignment of Capt. H. Alexander as Commissary at Marion, Va. will furnish us with an efficient officer for this Department.

Very Respectfully

The enclosed paper is copy of a letter to the Sec'y of War, calling for a recommendation that ~~the~~
 A. W. Harris, may be recommended as Captain & a Col. He has been a most valuable and efficient Officer, who was transferred to the West because of an injury he sustained during his Campaign, by a fall from his horse.

He was most successful in collecting supplies in Texas, while that State was in our possession, and contributed very largely to the support of our army. During that period he was in E. Texas. He is now an Army at Fort Comstock at Mansfield, but will be sent back to Texas when that country is again open to us. in which I am happy to co-operate.

THE SOUTHERN TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.

Terms and Conditions in which Messages are Received by these Companies for Transmission.

The public are notified that in order to guard against mistakes in the transmission of messages, every message of importance ought to be repeated by being sent back from the station at which it is to be received to the station from which it is originally sent. Half the usual price for transmission will be charged for repeating the message, and while these companies will use heretofore in every precaution to insure correctness, they will not be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of repeated messages beyond five hundred times the amount paid for sending the message, nor will they be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission of un-repeated messages, from whatever cause they may arise, nor the delays arising from interruptions in the workings of their telegraph, nor for any mistakes or omissions of any other company over whose line a message is to be sent to reach the place of destination. All messages will hereafter be received by these companies for transmission subject to the above conditions.

I have the honor to inform the General that the operation of our water works on the 4th inst. there were very good in position for the first time. Liads and from rifled thirty two pounders, and batteries in progress of construction for six other guns which will be mounted tomorrow on the day following. We had but a limited number of hands at work until Friday evening but when our force was increased to four hundred and fifty.

I have made arrangements for the relocation of the Gazon River, which will be effected in due time if the party who has charge of it can obtain a sufficient number of hands for the purpose.

Ammunition is now arriving and I hope we will be in good fighting condition by the time the summer begins.

President Davis.

Dear Sir:

I have been informed that Major J. Calhoun, the Chief Quartermaster at this Post has resigned, and as it is important that an efficient successor should be appointed, allow me to recommend Major E. W. Harris, who is perfectly familiar with the duties of the position and who is an excellent business man, well acquainted with the people, thoroughgoing and energetic. Major He served in the field until his health failed when he was assigned to duty at this Post. I know of no one so well qualified as he to fill the position, and I doubt not that he would discharge the duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of the Department and the Country.

I have observed him frequently, and believe he is one of the most careful energetic working officers I have seen in his Department.

With high regards, Yours &c &c

Sept 20th 1863

Col

Having received information from my friends ~~relative~~ ^{relative} that they are without a home and that it is impossible to procure one in that portion of the State I would respectfully ask for thirty days leave of absence that I may make provision for their comfort.

I have made arrangements with the other Surgeons of the Division whereby the sick of the 5th Battalion will not suffer for want of Medical attention during my absence.

I am

Very Respectfully

Honorable Member

President West. A.

He is understood

Senator and Representative, from the State Tennessee, cordially present for the appointment of Eugene J. Harin, son of Gen. John G. Harin, now in service in Major Gen. B. F. Cheatham's ^{Staff}, where he has been for sometime. He is about eighteen years of age and resides in Memphis Tennessee. He is a young man of good mind, intelligence and moral character.
Sound and healthy. We commend him to your favorable consideration and ask that you appoint him a Cadet from the State of Tennessee at large.

A & I G O,

Dear Sir,

I introduce to you Rev. George W. Harris, of Appleville, Fauquier County, a refugee for his loyalty to the Union.

He wants a chaplaincy.
He is a pious man, whom I have long known and esteemed, and I should be glad to see him put into a position where his piety and patriotism could have a field for labor.

Yours truly,

J. P. Ficklen

the simple reason that he is under arrest. There is no Post-Office: as I had no one to telephone there.

I am in your debt but I will be repaid soon.

September 17, 1964.

Respectfully returned to

Mrs. Vivian Nichols, 18880 Plainview Road, Wooddale Park,
Detroit, Michigan.

The records show that William H. Harris, not found as William Henry Harris, 2nd Lieutenant, Confederate States Army, was appointed from Mississippi May 20, 1861.

On December 27, 1861, he was ordered to report for duty to Major General Leonidas Polk at Columbus, Kentucky.

Later he appears to have served as Aide-de-Camp on General Wheeler's Staff and was captured at Duck River, also shown Shelbyville, Tennessee June 27, 1863.

He was imprisoned at Johnson's Island, Ohio and was there paroled and forwarded to Point Lookout, Maryland for exchange February 20, 1865.

He was surrendered by General Taylor and finally paroled at Columbus, Mississippi May 17, 1865.

Major General,
The Adjutant General.

Sir.

You will perceive by looking over my reports, that I made no Provision Return after the 17th day of July at which time ~~that~~ H. S. McDermis was ordered to act as Commissary. And I was sent back to Newhall Draft to pick up the Bunches which I did, and did not reach the Regiment until about the first of Nov and was not able to obtain any papers as all the men are great messy things paid for by me twice was yesterday the Commissary when I was at all night as is - was ordered by Col

Dear Anthonie,
Sir—

I peruse my November Report in December, but, from various causes, do keep pressing and others, and bring on the month constantly I now send in up—your wife, there made out an very inferior paper, but the best I could get at the time.
The pasting the papers together was made as I found the fact that the paper was, not be needed—I also send my December & Quarterly Reports, which I hope your wife find correct—you my acquaintance & the Office of a Commissioner I am indebted to do so from the following reasons First; I reside in the army before the last day of the Transcript Act, at a time when my absence from home, was, no reason in my interest & family. Hence that time the Transcript Act, has expired from my mind I have had many in my way and I am left under the control of an act and in being incompetent must and may without had already suffered materially ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ^{the} and must continue to do so, in an increasing a common manner, and I am in an extreme have to take charge (personally) of my affairs.

 I am unable to pay for my own I am, to the proper management and control of them, it is under favorable circumstances, my difficult to be sure a competent person and my way is in the interest of the public ration of the Breweyght Act, which has taken into the Army most of the young and competent men who pursue the avocation of farming, consequently under the present circumstances I am forced to have my interest intrusted to be managed here formed incompetent to the proper discharge of the duties of his position, and I find it is necessary for me to suspend and inform agents to be overlooked and advised as the plans themselves. To supply his place with a proper man is impossible, and to leave him properly overlooked and advised is also impossible; because my home is situated away from all family connections, and there are no others than whom I could expect proper attention and care to my interest.

I am sorry there seems to be, my connection with the Army, is in a willing and unforced character and I have affirmed, that save my fear of fracturing the distressed constitution of my affairs at home, which I have already mentioned, and influence me to offer my resignation" &c.

Letters Received

A & I G O,

Respectfully submitted to the Secretary of War.
Appears from the original paper in this case that McGowan has been on duty as Chaplain since April 1864. The Col. under his appointment to be read from the date of the passage of the act authorizing the app't of Battalion Chap lains. May 3, 1864. The paper in this case only reaches this office on 19th Sept. The date Aug 29. It was then delayed by the calling of the clerk to the trenches.

Does only act on receipt of this office on 18th Oct.
Under these circumstances cannot the appointment of McGowan be set back & if so to what time -

By order

Hon. Judge Campbell.

Sir.
On the last of April - I visited Gen. Echols' Brigade then in winter quarters in Greenbrier Co.

At the request of Gen.
Echols I remained - doing for some little time the duties of Brigade Chaplain Later - I applied my labor upon invitation of the Lt. Col. Comdr of the 23rd Battalion Va. Vol. Inf.

Sundry officers requested my appointment as Chaplain & Col. Derrick promised to make it out & forward.

Under these circumstances - I learn that my Commission only dates from the 28th of Oct - while I have been employed by request of Officers since the 1st of May.

Respectfully
R. L. Harris

Sir,

I have the honor respectfully to request the appointment of Mr. S. R. Harris to the Chaplaincy of the 23rd Batt. Ist Vol. Infy.

Mr. Harris was originally from New York.

He is now a resident of Lynchburg. He has been voluntarily attending very faithfully to the duties of Chaplain of this Batt. since April 1864 & richly merits the position which I solicit for him. I would respectfully request that his Commission date from the passage of the Act of Congress authorizing Battalion Chaplains. Mr. Harris is 32 yrs hours of age. I am Sir Very respectfully

Having

understood that my friend Capt H. C. Harris is an applicant for the appointment of Capt in the Artillery Service, I beg leave to recommend him for that position. He is a gentleman of high character at home, a re-vice since the commencement of the war. Under an authority granted him by the War Department he has been instru-

My dear Sir.

My friend Capt Ramsay of Bedford has letters to you re - giving you aid in obtaining a Commission under the Ordnance Act.

He has raised a Battalion of Artillery, but the Department detached one of his Companies and refused to allow him to organize the other four.

He has been Captain of Cavalry under Radford, was in the battle of Manassas - & a graduate of West Point and in every respect a gentleman - and capable officer as well as an accomplished gentleman.

Any aid you can give him would in my opinion be a favor to the service.

Truly yours

Colonel.

After the interview with the Hon. Sec of War on my application for the ~~rank~~ promotion of Lieut Cary & Fry. and my assurance to him that if Mr Fry was promoted ~~that~~ it would not make any further nominations, for Office, I have refrained from doing so.

In certifying that I could see Officers already in service if retained as ordered to report, left the matter where my understanding stood with the Department, should such certificate appear to be a recommendation, you will perceive there is this difference one class of applicants are in service - the other out.

The letters concerning Mr Harris are complimentary to him as I have no doubt he might in time become proficient in the Comptroller branch of service. but as remarked there are Officers sufficient in number. The peculiar qualifications are not arrived at or obtained at once and consequently, it is impossible for me to Know sufficiently of him to make a recommendation for a commission. At the same ^{time}, I do not wish to make any endorsement which would deprive him of this benefit in his application to the Department.

If Mr. Harris is commissioned I can assign him a duty, but not to a district until I know more of his ~~previous~~ experience.

Intelligent non-commissioned officers can usually make the most active local officers. There is no necessity that a local officer should be commissioned.

I again disclaim any expression which will operate against the application, and desire to be understood as conforming to my understanding with the Department when the promotion of Capt. Fry was ordered.

No. 703

I, the undersigned, Secretary of War, belonging to the Army of the Department of Alabama, Mississippi and East Louisiana, having been authorized by Lt. Gen. R. Saylor, U. S. A., Commanding said Department, to Maj. Gen. L. M. S. Canby, U. S. A., Commanding Army and Government of West Mississippi, do hereby give him PAROLE OF HONOR that I will not interfere with the Army of the Confederate States in any military capacity whatever against the United States of America, or render aid to the enemies of the latter until properly summoned to do so, as shall be mutually approved by the respective authorities.

Done at Meridian, Miss.

this 12th day of May, 1862.

Approved:

R. B. P. Harris
Assistant S. A., C. S.

James M. Canby, Colonel U. S. A., Gen'l.

The above named officer will not be disturbed by United States authorities, as long as he observes his parole, and the laws in force where he resides.

Genl

I hereby tender my immediate resignation for the following reasons, to wit.

My Regiment has been consolidated with the 88th & 49th Ala Regt^s temporarily. Said Consolidation to stand until each of the former Regt^s have a total of Two hundred & fifty (250) men, & give it as my opinion that neither will ever under such Order be able to resume its original organization. There being another Regt^y present beside myself & being the junior Off. would respectfully request to be relieved of my present command & be permitted to select my command elsewhere, believing that I can be of more service to my Country.

Very Respectfully Sent,

May 24 1864

Sir,

I respectfully ask for leave of absence for thirty days from Hospital to visit my home & attend of business for Stewart's Division.
Honorable Major, Henry G. Timmerman, recommends me to be relieved under Act of Congress "to establish an Invalid Corps", on account of disability, resulting from four different gunshot wounds received in the battle of Guinea Farm, Sharpsburg and Chickamauga. Owing to the recent movements in Northern Georgia delay was occasioned in receiving the proper papers from the Adjutant & Hospital Inspector in Richmond, & I continued with my regiment until Tuesday the 16th inst, being engaged in all the battles, marches, which occurred up to that time, when I was ordered by The Surgeon General to a Hospital on account of disability and exhaustion.
My home is only ten miles from the Hospital; my father has very recently died, the distressing news having reached me only a few days ago, and my presence at home while it will be temporary to me will contribute much to the comfort of my mother. And as I will not be required to return to the army I hope the leave will be granted.

Very Respectfully

Sir

I hereby tender

my resignation as Assistant Surgeon.

Having since the 23rd Jan 1861 formed its organization in July 1861 - to Oct 1883 when it was constituted with the 11th Dec. - thereby leaving two assistant surgeons in duty with the Regt. - During the active Campaign that has followed they have been much depleted in numbers from the Committee of War - numbering now less than two hundred men - evidently not requiring the services of two assistant surgeons.

I earnestly desire a transfer to the West and prefer to resign for the following reasons in consequence of operations having been only broken in that dept. my home & family being in that line within the enemy lines & having interests in this North Ala. & prefer forming the Cavalry Command of the District not being able to perform the duties incident to the Infantry branch of the Service.

I offer this through a sense of

And, with a sincere hope that I may the approval of my Country Officers & the as I prefer to leave my Country the service of the war as a private soldier than in my present position

Very Respectfully,

Montgomery 23 April 1861

Dear Sir

Mr Saml H Harris a citizen from neighbors of Antauga County, and for several years, a resident of Montgomery, and for several years lawyer, is soliciting to enter the service of the South against the black cohorts of the North, and is I understand an applicant for a Lieutenant in the Confederate Army.

I have known Mr Harris' family for more than twenty years & have known him personally for some time. His connections in life and his personal with entitled him to high consideration & I have no doubt he would acquire himself in the new vocation to which he as-siring, should he be so fortunate as to receive an appointment, with credit to himself, & usefulness to the Country.

Dear Sir

I have been informed, in this place, by a friend, that he has been appointed to you, for the appointment of a Secrecy, in the duty of the Confederation of States. My acquaintance with Mr. Harris is considerable, and I say the appointment will be a great benefit to a young gentleman of good moral character, is a lawyer, and possesses talents which will enable him to succeed in any profession, which he may choose. I think you would do well to place upon him the appointment, as he is, in my opinion, greatly benefited by his studies in the law, and his ability, and energy, and bar as an attorney for more than a year & a half. He is a man of brilliant talents and is destined to rise to a high rank in whatever profession he follows.

He is a young man, of fine moral character.

Pardon the liberty I take with you, as my immediate representative, in bringing to your favourable notice, the case of one of my sons, Capt Saml E Hearns, of the Army of Tenn, who has been for about two years acting as Inspector Genl, first in Gen Wolcott's Staff, & since then as Genl Sears, Staff of French's Divis, - But for some months commanding the 1st Missy Battalion, - at their request & of their senior Capt who ranks my son - this Battalion has by a unanimous petition to the War Department. The senior Captain & every officer in it, signing it, - asked that my son should be promoted to a Lieut Colonelcy, & placed permanently over them. - It has been forwarded in since about the time of the Battle of Gettysburg. - His petition was signed by Genl Sagers in a complimentary manner - recommending that it should be granted.
My son has been in the Army since the Commencement of the war, - One of the first to go to Pen Baccha - & has continued most faithfully in it, ever since except when captured at Donelson & confined 7 months at Johnston's Island. - He ought to have been elected

Col. J. H. ... is ...
Capt. ... as he was for the ...
He graduated as Captain of his Class in 1864 - in the Kentucky Military Institute, - in the ...
Munroe's ... or Capt. ... a Brigade as early as a Co., which he has often done by the request of all the Co's, in Genl Baldwin's & Genl Egan's absence, - & I state to you that there is not a better drill officer in the Confederacy - or one who has more faithfully performed his duty as a Soldier - sober - attentive, conscientious & energetic - in all he does, - & as true as steel to the South.
Genl Baldwin recommended him, very highly for promotion, & Genl E. W. Barker also made some efforts to have him promoted, a year or two since, at Genl Baldwin's instance, - but failed, - & I know this is a small matter.
& I fear it may give you some trouble, but if any one desires promotion my son desires.
There is such a thing as being disappointed by seeing others of less qualifications promoted in our hands - & the thing of injustice & ought is not conducive to cheerfulness or energy in the young & ambitious -

I have hitherto refrained from urging the merit claims of my son for promotion, - fearing that it might be in part by a threat, - as that I might be. Then I am in position, as they are to be killed - & now I would not say one word if I did not know my own is worthy of promotion - I would make a far better Brigadier than Murder, now occupying that station -

Please present my respects to Mr. W. E. Bartol & Mr. Chamber - of this State, & say to them that I could not certificates as long as my arms - as to all I say in this letter - & ask them to give you aid, ⁱⁿ deciding the position my own desires, - & pardon me for intruding his claims upon them -

I suppose the petition to which I refer is on file in Mr. Allen or Sedgwick's office - when you can see it -

Ever kindly Obedient in this behalf with very Much Obedience -

Yours truly

Ed. H. Harris.

I'll Mr. H. C. Chamber, a very interesting friend of his yesterday from the country - who was looking curiously.

I hope the President - will give the subj of this letter such attention as it deserves

Capt. Saml.

L. Harris, Son of Col. Geo. H. Harris of Columbus & nephew of Judge Wm. L. Harris both of whom you are doubtless well acquainted with has been on my staff as Maj. A. Ins. Genl. since I am app'd a Brigadier.

He is a graduate of the Ky. Mil. Institute & thoroughly versed in tactics besides being well instructed in other branches of the Military art.

He entered the service as 1st Lieut. of my company May 23 1861. - Was appointed by me Act. A. A. Genl. in October of the same year, when the Brigade were organized at Poplar Grove Ky. by Genl. A. S. Johnson. and I commanded one as Senior Colonel. He performed the duties & remained in this position to my entire satisfaction until the surrender of Fort Don-elson - when he behaved so gallantly as to merit notice in my official report. Edging from prison in Sept. 1862. His well known strictness as a disciplinarian prevented his election to a field office and he declined election to the Command of his Company - preferring a place on my staff (It was then announced but not officially that I had been promoted) which it was supposed I had the privilege of nominating for. Whilst remaining in command of the 14th Regt. I appointed him Adjutant. As soon as my appt. as Brig. Genl. was rec^d I forwarded his name, with other staff nominations, for Aft. Insp. Genl. And I not believed from what was told me by others that the nomination would have been confirmed by the War Dept. I should have selected Capt. Harris for my Aft. Genl. I did not learn until too late.

I have been required by Orders of Department and Division Commander to have an Inspector and Capt. Har. continues to fill that position.

He has been with me and performed signal service through the Campaigns of last Winter and Spring & the Siege of Vicksburg.

Behaved with great Coolness & Gallantry in the affairs in which my Command was engaged at Coffeeville, Port Gibson, Big Black Bridge, and during the Siege of Vicksburg.

He is a very strict & thorough disciplinarian and I can truly say never fails in the performance of any duty. I have a military board now in session of which Col.

Sears a West Point Graduate is President & Capt Harris a member which is producing an entire revolution in my Command owing to the strictness with which officers elected or to be pro-

Notes are examined. Tactics and Army regulations are in demand and classes of instruction are well attended in every regiment.

I learn that the War Dept. has decided "not to appoint an Inspector upon any Genl's Staff simply upon the recommendation of the General. In other words a selection of his own."

I do not ask this now though I would have been gratified if I could have secured the appt for Capt. H. and have retained his services. What I now ask is a Commission for a Meritorious officer - on the grounds of Merit alone and I ask if my recommendation is deemed of any value it may be placed to the Credit of Capt. Harris to its fullest extent and that if appointments are made at large he may be included. He ought to be a field officer - So better qualified than nine tenths of the Colos. of Regiments that I know of. If he cannot be appt. ~~to~~ higher than a Captains Commission will be cheerfully accepted. I do not write this at his suggestion but because I feel it due to him. The position he has held for some time being somewhat irregular and unsatisfactory to a position officer.

even the length of this Communication. It is prompted by the interest-ful in a friend whom I know to be deserving. I have nothing to ask for myself. The Dept. has done for me more than I expected without personal application, - and I have nothing to ask for friends except where in a case like this merit and the interest of the service both prompt me to make the application. Please be so kind as to use your influence in Capt Harris's favor and be assured that anything you can do for him will be esteemed a personal favor to myself.

I hope the present position of Congress may be satisfactory and pleasant to yourself & of great advantage to our Country;

Very truly your friend & obt. serv.

Brig Genl. P.O.

P.S. Please present my regards to Judge Phelan and ask him to write with you in recommending Capt Harris. If Harris can be assigned to duty with me after he is regularly appointed I shall esteem it a double favor -

I respectfully solicit a commission in the P. A. C. S. for Capt. S. D. Harris, for the following reasons:

Capt Harris entered the service in May 1861 as 1st Lieut. in the 14th Miss Inf. He was a graduate of the U.S. Mil. Institute where he was adjutant the last year of his term. He is one of the most accomplished tacticians in the army and a rigid and thorough disciplinarian. Whilst I commanded a brigade as Senior Col., during the fall and winter of 1861-62 he was my actg. adj. Genl., and on the 15th of Feb. 1862 at Fort Sumter, he conducted himself as he merit special notice in my report.

Upon the reorganization of his regiment, upon the return of the Fort Sumter prisoners, he refused election to the command of his company, was defeated in the election of field officers for the grant of election evening proclivities, and was appointed adjutant of the regiment (14th Miss Inf.) which office he resigned on the 28th of October ensuing.

when an appointment as Brig. Genl. was made me to accept an appointment on my staff - that of Asst. Brig. Genl. which I then thought was at my disposal.

Although the Department has not recognized this appointment Capt Harris has continued to discharge the duties with much more than ordinary ability and has merited the highest commendations for his coolness and gallantry, combined with thorough knowledge of his duties, on the field at Coffeeville, Port Gibson, Big Black Bridge and during the siege of Vicksburg.

There are few field officers in the service his equals in competency. He merits not only confirmation as Captain but promotion to a higher rank.

Should it be deemed by the War Dept. conducive to the interest of the service to award him a commission I desire his service in the capacity in which he has been acting for the past year. But should ~~not this be admissible~~ I hope and trust that his services will be recognized and that a commission which he so fully merits, and he gives him in some corps.

Respectfully

Yr Obedt. Servt,

H. C. Jackson

Camp near Winchester Va November 12 1862
At a meeting of the commissioned officers of the 42nd Regiment Georgia Vols Major J. P. Hayer was called to the chair and Capt. C. H. Jones of Comp A was requested to act as secretary.

Mr. Chapman stated the object of his motion to give expression to the sentiments of the officers of this Regiment on the occasion of the departure of Capt. Thos. H. Harris from this time in Georgia. On motion Capt. ~~Harris~~ Chapman, Hyman and adjt. J. C. Johnson were appointed a committee to draft a preamble & resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Regiment.
Whereupon the following was offered and unanimously adopted.

Whereas we have learned to day that our regiment will suffer surprise, but by some unaccountable error sight in the War Department at Richmond that the band marched some time in July last and mailed by Capt. Harris our experienced and gentlemanly Quartermaster on the 26th of July last, (as with a view to his accompanying (Corps) was not mailed has never been received at the proper Department and whereas upon this ground the office of Quartermaster of this Regiment, has been entirely vacant, Resolved, that while we regret exceedingly that by his action of the Department Capt. Harris was thus compelled to vacate the office, we were so long yet, to the satisfaction of the officers and men of this Regiment we can not part with him without giving an expression of our sentiments on this occasion.
That his great attachment to the Regiment and his ever ready constant aim to glorify the entire of his office will such promptness and accuracy as to merit the approbation of the superior in his department, and he has given such general satisfaction, by his uniform kindness and courtesy, that each and every one of us constantly profit with him. and we hope, that should the proper department discover the error in this matter (as it can not be anything else but an error) we may not be blamed. Capt Harris when at the Regiment was in the position.

But as circumstances have made it necessary for him to vacate the office, we can stay with him all his absence, in and out, as it may occasion any further mischief and a mistake.

Enclosed, that a copy of this message be published in the Richmond Enquirer and Examiner, and in Georgia, Va. &c.

J. Cooper

Sir I received notice a few days ago that my name had been dropped from the roll of Commissioned Officers in the C. S. A. because I had failed to execute a bond as required. I can not express the painful surprise and deep mortification I feel at this notice.

I assure you the bond was executed and sent by mail as directed, I shall be abundantly able to prove this. I have the names and certificates of several Officers who saw the bond and will testify that it was placed in the mail, as a special order requires all business with your department to be done by letter when practicable, I hope you will write to me at this place informing what is necessary for me to do in order to restore my name to the roll.

I have the highest testimonials from my Officers the Brig. Gen. and the Brig. & Gen. I L. Thomas of Mississippi and officiating in my department all of which with the above certificates I will submit to you if desired.

I am sir my respectfully

Thos. M. H. H.

Sir

I beg leave most respectfully to tender to you my resignation as Assistant Surgeon in the accompanying certificate.

Very Respectfully

W. M. Harris

Capt. & Surgeon 49th Georgia

Walt. M. Harris A. D. M. 49th Regt. Ga. Inf. Having applied for a certificate upon which to ground an order of his resignation, I do hereby certify that I have carefully examined this officer and find him suffering from Palpitation of the Heart and Dyspnoea of long standing as well much aggravated by pressure and overexertion of the nervous system consequent upon a severe attack of typhoid fever during last year. He has recently not only attacks of hemoptoe, but in consequence thereof he is in my opinion unable to perform the duties of an officer properly—

Genl Hebert

Dear Sir

I am informed by order so I presume by the Asst & Surge Genl. by order of the Governor that you have the appointment of the staff for the various Regiments and Brigades for the fourteen Regiments to be raised under the Governor's call. What these appointments are of, I am not informed by the order. Desiring an active position in the service, such as, Asst Adj of a Brigade or Asst of a Regiment, or something of an active nature. If it will not be considered egotism I will say that I am a good drill officer, not to be a graduate. I refer you to Honble A. Kruger, Maj G. G. Huggs, Maj. R. R. Hagner, Col Wm Taylor, Maj E. A. Blanch, & Maj B. F. Fredericks, and many others if you desire of this place, and for my official conduct to Col J. G. Deshise of Austin. Hoping to hear from you soon, I am very respectfully

1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for determining the correct amount of tax liability.

2. The second part of the text describes the various methods used to calculate the tax liability, including the use of tax tables and the application of various deductions and credits. It also discusses the importance of understanding the different types of taxes, such as income tax, sales tax, and property tax.

3. The third part of the text discusses the various ways in which taxes can be paid, including through direct payment to the tax authority or through a third party, such as a tax collector or a tax agent. It also discusses the importance of understanding the different methods of payment, such as cash, check, or credit card.

4. The fourth part of the text discusses the various ways in which taxes can be avoided or reduced, including through the use of tax shelters, tax credits, and tax deductions. It also discusses the importance of understanding the different methods of avoidance or reduction, such as capital gains tax, estate tax, and gift tax.

5. The fifth part of the text discusses the various ways in which taxes can be enforced, including through the use of tax audits, tax liens, and tax seizures. It also discusses the importance of understanding the different methods of enforcement, such as the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the State Tax Authority.

Logistics

(Copy)

Proposition I. To supply the Army of Virginia with food without improvement or requisition, other than legal titles, upon the state of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, South Carolina or Georgia, with an economy of expenditure.

Demonstrations.

Subsistence being an important branch of the Military Art of Logistics, we have the three great and universally recognized maxims for our guidance. viz:

1st Regular magazines should be formed, so far as practicable, for the supplies of the army, the laying of requisitions being restricted to only where the nature of the war, and the rapidity of marches, render them absolutely necessary to success.

2nd "Dépôts" should be formed in places strong, though by nature or art, defended by small corps, or garrisons, and situated in positions least liable to attack.

3rd All great dépôts should be placed on navigable rivers, canals, railways, or practical roads, communicating with the line of operations, so that they may be transported with ease and rapidity, as the army advances on its line."

Suppose Columbus, Geo. as the magazine and that Montgomery, Ala. Charlotte, N.C., Knoxville & Petersburg Va. be assumed relatively as principal, secondary and provisional. Corn which is now gathered and put in Alabama & Mississippi can be purchased in those states upon plantations, at exceedingly low rates and in abundance and the question arises: How can it be transported to the depot at Montgomery & the Magazine at Columbus Gro.?

When we consider that the crops in those states will not be endangered (for the present or ensuing year) that the country roads in those states are and will continue in excellent condition until the 1st of November & probably until Christmas next, and that the plantation teams and other transportation until that period, is but an idle encumbrance to the planters, it can be readily perceived that their consent to transport their own surplus productions to the nearest depot or river landings would not be attended with opposition or disadvantage to the people by this temporary measure. By this means, almost every bushel of corn now concentrated at Montgomery, Ala. The railroad from Montgomery cannot, with the coal now so unnecessarily transported by it, transport exceeding 5000 bushels per day. Wagon transportation can be secured & will be required to transport from Montgomery to Union Springs a distance of 39 miles at actual price, one third the terminus of the Mobile and Grand R.R. This work is enormous as it may appear may be done without details from the Army, saving a few directing officers & wagon masters, and it should be speedily done before the winter rains and the roads rendered heavy with mud. According that the foregoing method to be shown how this can be transported to Virginia. This question is comparatively easy. One hundred cars = 1000 bags 2000 bushels each, will move 2000 bushels per day. (about seven trains loaded with corn, per day). The gauge of all R.R.'s concentrating at Columbus, Macon, Augusta, Kingsville, Wilmington, Columbus to Charlotte R.C., are more or less. & without breaking bulk. There is an abundance of rolling stock and motive power belonging to the Memphis & Charleston R.R.s, which would amply suffice. besides the stock of the Atlanta & West. Point and Georgia R.R.'s not one third of which is necessary in use on these roads or likely to be used. The Federal Army captures from the Atlanta. This is more will place 30,000 bushels of corn daily at Charlotte R.C.

As Charlotte our proposed sea gauge to Danville. That R.R. change to the Macon freight transport exceeding say 2000 bushels per day, but hear again wagon transportation may be used to connect them with Danville (100 miles). Allowing 2000 bushels for the R.R. per day, then 500 wagon @ 40 bushels each per load, gives 20,000 bushels per day at our secondary depot at Danville. When the broad gauge R.R. is again struck and) the rolling stock of the Virginia roads used easily be temporary employed in bringing it forward. The Virginia Army requiring 2000 to 3000 bushels per day an immense supply might be easily distributed for winter consumption.

The estimate (figures) hereto consumption more fully demonstrate the economy of the plan. Whilst the accumulation of adequate winter supplies cannot fail to be a great relief to the people & give additional substance & value to our currency.

We are very glad to hear that the Hon. Thomas A. Harris is to have opposition in the Second District. We do not know the gentleman, but we desire his defeat for another, stands identical with that policy through which Missouri has been sacrificed, threatening, in the face of the very State in the Trans-Mississippi movement that man is Thomas A. Harris. The information to this effect comes up to us from all quarters. In the very beginning, as a member of Congress, and as a West Pointer, he threw the weight of his influence against the appointment of that sterling patriot and soldier—sterling by name and sterling by nature—we mean Sterling Price, to the command of the Missouri troops; and from that hour to the present he has opposed every effort made through that veteran officer to draw out the resources of Missouri. Eighteen months ago, when Missouri stood, as is well known to the world, with a majority of not less than fifty thousand votes in favor of our cause, ready for a general uprising to throw off the yoke of the enemy; when, for this purpose, the advent of Gen. Price with a nucleus of force was all that was deemed necessary to secure the movement; when the Governor of Missouri, the lamented Jackson, demanded his return, and every hole and corner in the State was imploring for it, Thomas A. Harris, through his West Point influence with the Government, as is well understood, defeated the project and remanded the State back to the embraces of the Northern despot. From that day to this Missouri has been made to undergo all the mortifications, sufferings, ravage and despoliation that the vandal conqueror chose to inflict. She has seen her sons ruthlessly slaughtered and driven out, and her daughters incarcerated and exiled, while the robber revelled in their possessions. She has seen her soldiers within the ranks of the Confederate States Army, despairing of ever again reaching their homes, like the Macedonians in the ranks of Antigonus in Asia, after the death of Alexander, desperately rushing upon the battle's brunt in the very wantonness of patriotic fury.

If the arrangement entered into at this time between Maj-General Magruder, as General in chief of Trans-Mississippi Department, and Maj. General Price, as General Commanding all the forces in the field, had not been disturbed by the recall of Magruder and the appointment of Holmes; and by the negation of the claims of Price, and by the pointment of Hindman, we do not hesitate to express it as our belief that, not only would Missouri now be disengaged from the enemy, and Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas be intact, but the whole power of the Northern States would have been kept as fully and constantly occupied in Northern Missouri, that neither Vicksburg could have been assaulted, nor our centre in Tennessee threatened. How stood the case? Forty-five full regiments, composed of Texans, Louisianians, Arkansians and Missourians, asked that Gen. Price should be assigned to their command, and the Legislature of those States, about the same time, indicated their wishes through complimentary resolutions. The people every where desired it. According to the programme of Magruder and Price, the latter at the head of this fine army, as a nucleus of force, backed by all the resources of the Department, was to have marched into Missouri for the Missourians to rally around; and who doubts but that in ninety days there would not have been a Federal soldier south of the Missouri River. Our army would have wintered on that river and with the opening of the spring, the Northwestern States would have required, in their own defense, those very armies that swept our centre under Bragg in Kentucky and Tennessee, and afterwards forced the surrender of Vicksburg. Who can fail to see this that is not blind? Yet Magruder was recalled, and some say because of his having agreed thus to favor Price, and Price was put in straight jackets at Tupelo, and Holmes and Hindman were substituted as the officers of the Trans-Mississippi. What evils have not followed their advent? Let the disasters of Prairie Grove, of Arkansas Post, and of Helena; the loss of Missouri and Arkansas; the present trembling condition of Louisiana and Texas, and the demoralization of the service; together with the sequences of the fall of Vicksburg, the loss of the Mississippi Valley, and the hard pressure in our centre at Dalton, each and all alike answer. With this line of disaster—of hostility to the right, and pervasiveness in the wrong—Thomas A. Harris has been, is, and will be identified, and, therefore, we are glad to hear that he has opposition.

If we condescended to speak of him in other respects, in his public character as Representative in Congress, we might adduce evidence of the highest warrant to justify our opposition to him upon this ground alone. The candidate before the country in opposition to Mr. Harris is N. L. Norton, a gentleman well known to Missourians, both in and out of the army, through his identification with the service of the State and the Confederacy from the beginning to the present time, and whose family, because of that identification, have been treated by the enemy with a rigor rarely equalled in atrocity by any age or in any country. He has sat with the soldier by his camp fires and shared his hardships. He appreciates the wants of our armies and the necessities of our soldiers. And he has the educational ability, the moral firmness, and the resolution to represent them properly in the Congress. We hail with pleasure the presentation of his name to the army of

His Excellency

Jefferson Davis,
Sir

Intending to leave this City in a day or two until the meeting of Congress in Nov next, I very much desired to have a short conversation with ^{you} before my departure in reference to the propriety of securing for the Government in some ~~useful~~ useful and appropriate situation at the Capital the services of Genl Thomas A. Harris of Missouri. Genl Harris has talents and business power of a high order, and is known to be devoted to our cause, and especially to you, and your administration.
Having had a Military education in part & being thoroughly otherwise educated coupled with the varied information derived during a long and careful tour in Europe and having been unfortunately defeated for Congress, I think it would be highly just to him and beneficial to the public good to place him in some appropriate place. I have conversed with all of the Missouri delegation now here and they concur with me. My leaving purpose in accepting a seat in Congress is to contribute as much as I can in aiding our cause by giving efficiency to our congressional administration of the government in all departments.

With great respect
Yours (Ct) truly

Under a late provision of our Government, entitled "An Act to provide for holding elections for Representatives in the Congress of the Confederate States from the Congress of Missouri," you will soon be called upon to give the high prerogative of freemen, in the choice of representatives in the councils of the nation, which our State has made to many sacrifices to establish and defend.

Under the authority of the act referred to, I am a candidate for Congress in the Second Congressional District, lately represented by the Hon. Thomas A. Harris.

Impelled to this candidature by the personality of friends, I shall very briefly refer to some facts in relation to the future policy of our Government, and the principles I shall advocate, in the event of election.

Engulfed as we are in the most cruel and bloody strife that has ever doomed its victims to the hearts of a people, our whole business is war. All our solicitude is for the successful solution of the issues that must assure us Independence, Freedom and Political status among the nations of earth. All our energies should be our country's, and our solemn duty unceasing devotion to its interests.

I am for "the Constitution, the Confederacy and the enforcement of the laws." I believe that earnest, united effort of all the branches of the Government in the line of war, is the best and surest guarantee of a early peace. I believe that all portions of the country alike, should receive, as far as possible, the co-operation and protection of the Government. I believe that distinguished services and personal merit should be honored the basis of promotion in our armies. In a state of war, the legislative department has many onerous responsibilities, not the least of which is to give vigor and efficiency to its action, and at the same time preserve the superiority of the civil over the military power. This department develops the resources of the country, applies the stimulus and provides the energies of war. As its outer hostilities begin, and through its aid treaties of amity are concluded. While, declare war, it is its duty to preserve the respect of the nations by a faithful compliance with the terms of the Constitution while it progresses, and at the same time to "insure justice" to each and every individual engaged by its action.

If under the Constitutional "power to raise armies," Congress has the right to declare that hundreds of thousands of our citizens shall become soldiers (which all will grant), is it not obligated by every principle of equity and good faith to guarantee such citizen the protection of the Government? It compels him to defend? In other words, has not Congress also the power, under the authority to "support armies," to recruit the resources with which to feed, clothe and equip him? Shall it call troops into the field, away from their avocations and families, only to neglect them—or shall it lay hold on such elements of national wealth among us as will ensure trade with Europe, in spite of the Washington blockade Regulator, thus bringing in articles of prime necessity for both soldier and citizen? It is time that practical reasoning shall be resorted to. The reign of "King Cotton" is over—compelled to abdicate his scepter and crown by enlightened public sentiment (though undoubtedly of royal extraction), he is really but a subject element of the genuine sovereignty.

RACE AND COMMERCE.—Commerce, not cotton, but commerce in all its phases and features, is what germinates business, wealth and interest. It reveals the heartlessness of corporations and governments, and establishes the fact that national interest is political Lord of nations. As soon as we make it to the interest of Europe to come to our relief, she will willingly design to acknowledge us. To this end we should abandon the insane policy of forcing repatriation, by riding high Shirley among the nations on the Cotton Pegasus, or by rebuilding a single article of trade; for as long as England can keep up for her pauper population the beef shops of London, at less expense than risk the probability of war, they will never interfere.

We should prohibit trade with the enemy, which but strengthens his energies for aggression, and adds nothing to our defensive ability. "Special privileges" to individuals and corporations are, in the main, subversive of the objects they would attain; besides, they furnish shelter for a large class of men, who, in this guise, evade the service, exert on the Government, depreciate our currency and speculate on the necessities of the mother, widow and orphan of the gallant dead, who have fallen in defense of the country their cupidity disfigures.

The Government should monopolize the whole of the resources of the country, paying the producer a full equivalent therefor, offering them at the same time on our extensive seaboard to the shipping of foreign nations at such advances as will meet the cost of such expenses of the war, who will be too happy to give us in exchange therefor all character of munitions and military stores, together with a sufficient amount of gold to make specie payments in full for services to our army; and also to meet the interest on our indebtedness, which will appreciate our bonds to a gold standard. Thus the world sees at a glance our determination and ability to become free, and that we, at their expense, then will nations feel each other in their efforts to be gracious—among the first of whom will be the Federal Government. Recognition, political fellowship, independence and peace immediately follow, and we will go home to Missouri, while the dilemma of new expedients to remove the curse of Kansas, and whitewash the even face of Abolition.

It will hardly be doubted that but for the "peculiar institution" we would ere this have been an independent sovereignty, or that we have been warring against the moral sympathies of the world. Yet our army, lavishing its determination and dignity, has accomplished wonders, and the formal respect that valor wins is at last ours. It only remains for our executive and legislative departments, practically, and able to exemplify their professions of co-operation with the military, by making a laggle, pouring next commercial and financial beds for our Confederate superstructure to rest on—a basis of positive attractions—attractions to the solid interests of uncharitable nations to them—and the victory is won.

"Revolutions never go backward." Our credits and commercial relations once wheel ed into line, the indisputable existence of a sovereignty is established, and even the miniplant march of truth and justice. The Confederacy has had two battles to fight—one with her enemies, and the other with her friends. The bloody of the past three years guarantees the success of the former. Let us hope that ere long in the latter too she may announce a triumph.

I have an abiding faith in the wisdom and patriotism of our Executive, and feel assured that he will avail himself of all honorable advantages to be gained in this direction and also that he will turn to good account the same examinations now afflicting the North west.

The persistent violations of the solemn treaty Missouri desires of the United States by France, her Northern European allies, by her grand camp-du-manis over Austria, and systematic paralysis of Russia, are generally interpreted as heralds of recognition, and it is but natural that Bonaparte should declare discussion in this country, which would secure to Maximilian a Empire a friendly neighbor, rather than a re-union of the States, which must result in a great commercial depot, of known hostility to both France and Mexico.

Let it, independence may be secured by our own efforts, and the horrors of war averted by but a day, delay is inadmissible; and opportunity is this true when we consider that the present may bring with it a demand for unmitigated concessions which no valid basis.

At last, through nobly the president of the Union, is within my grasp of our arms, a table as position, and every consideration in good policy would demand that we

the black, our numbers would be infinitely augmented, effect the turning of the right wing of the Federal army, and meeting at Illinois and Iowa, thus depleting our reinforcements in Tennessee as to reinforce our efforts to occupy the line at the Ohio, giving to us in both cases the most magnificent country for supplies on the continent. There are also important reasons in view of prospective redemption why Missouri should be occupied, at least in part, by Confederate forces.

Missouri's sons have died on every field from the Potomac to the Rio Grande. In the mountain fastnesses on the broad prairies of the far West, they have died that she might live. A million hearts are there supplicating the Eternal for her redemption. While from Springfield, Union, Corinth, Vicksburg, Prairie Grove and Helena, come up a voice of solemn warning and remembrance to the ears of those who would waltzfully throw the keys of our strength into the hands of our enemy. Shall they be unheeded?

The troops are impatient to avenge the wall of Insulted Innocence that comes from the blaze of our ruined homes, to wrest the graves of their comrades from the impious tread of tyrants, and to crown with new laurels the brow of their Old Union, whose name their deeds have already made immortal. Those who have followed him through dangers, hardships, victories and glories—fought by his side, and shared his trials—know the worth and lofty patriotism of that leader and friend. They know, too, how to appreciate the column of disappointed at vials, who would presume to sit in judgment on one whom above-lashed they are not wont to buckle.

The cloud of detraction with which they would enshroud him, like the veil thrown over the blazing shroud of Isis, will be snatched and destroyed by a splendor, which in vain it attempts to overcloud. The name of Sterling Price is too deeply identified with Missouri to receive abuse without insult to the State. It is associated with her grandest educational and political achievements—graven upon her mightiest plains, and noted in her everlasting hills. It is breathed at her altars, it banners her victories, and is shrouded in her battles. Missouri will never permit it to be tarnished by unjust aspersions, or unwarrantable reproach. What matter is it to them whether the previous formulas of military circumspection are preserved or not, so an engagement in word and honor vindicated?

The hopes of the nation have been too often blasted already by the imbecility of scientific chieftains, who could lead our armies into danger, but knew not how to extricate them from Lee, Johnston, Beauregard and many others, whose names will give lustre to our annals, have added strategy to the sciences of books; but nature made them Generals. If she has not stamped the man with her bright signet of genius, all the military academies in Christendom cannot give him strategy and the powers of combination. The General must come forth, like Minerva, from the brow of Jupiter, armed for the conflict. The Herald of Daily alone, our model him. "Look at the illustrious heroes of the first revolution. Washington, whose strategy swayed above the Atlantic of treaties—Green, who quitted the plow to take the lead of armies, and to outwit the best chieftains of British. Look at the host of heroic names, who from all ages, attest that the Omnipotent alone makes the General."

This is not a crusade for Abime, or West Point, but for independence. Our army is too dear to us, and the lives of our soldiers too valuable to be wasted in affording podantry new opportunities to prove its incompetency. Let genius be called forth, though it come from the ranks. Foster the officers who have the confidence of their troops, and whose skill has marked out the road to victory.

I shall make no canvaas. My honorable opponent is confined at the capitol by severe illness, and it were indelicate to seek advantage of his misfortune.

Besides I have very little faith in polemical displays when the thousand necessities of a bleeding country are passing in rapid review before our eyes. Popular harangues frequently winces neither ability or sincerity. The time for them has passed. The hour for action is here. That rhetorical eloquence and pathetic gliding which might dignify the declamation of demagogues, or embellish the supertonic orations of sunchine patriots, falls with a poor grace on the ear, and who only await an opportunity to throw their lives in the scale against the liberties and destiny of their country.

Whatever shall be the result of the coming election, and however much I should feel complimented by the suffrages of so gallant and intelligent a people as ours, I have no higher ambition than the best interests of my country, and desire that each of my fellow soldiers shall exercise his own judgment, casting his vote for or against me, with a conscientious regard for his country's welfare. If endorsed by a majority, I shall endeavor to demonstrate my appreciation of their confidence by a faithful vigilance over the honor and interests of our State, our army and our Confederacy.

Missouri has a proud history for the future, and you, companions, will leave a grand heritage to posterity. While liberty has a home on earth—while heroism is a virtue, and glory commands respect, your story will illumine the annals of the nation. Your sacrifices, and wonderful achievements will command the admiration of mankind, and constitute one of the proudest monuments of the devotion of the human heart to the cause of principle and human liberty. The classics of coming ages will weave no historic garlands for the followers of Alexander, Caesar or Napoleon, which will not also adorn the tombs of your own immortal legions and those of your martyred comrades, who now have no monument save their own everlasting valor. They saw the genius through the march of battles, and the solemn diploma of the unconquered. Yet a little longer and we shall realize their dying vision, rear monuments to their memory, and strike Asiatic freemen in our own loved Missouri redeemed. Your fellow-citizens,

S P E E C H .

Fellow-Missourians:

I am gratified to greet you once again, and to recognize among you that buoyant health, hope and patriotism, which is the most satisfactory indication that you will strew your path with as brilliant glories in the future as you have already done in the past.

I shall not attempt, on this occasion, to regale you with pretty bouquets, culled from the flowery vales of rhetoric, nor to amuse you with gorgeous pictures gilded by fancy and colored with the conventional tints of the imagination. Such pastimes may serve to beguile an idle hour in times of peace, but we are now profoundly plunged in the current of passing and startling events, which are of serious moment and vital importance both to ourselves and all that we hold most dear and sacred. I shall, therefore, pass to the consideration of those themes pertaining to the questions at issue, and interests involved.

A law of the Confederate States authorizes the election of seven members to the Congress, from the State of Missouri, and has devolved upon you the grave responsibility of exercising the elective franchise in behalf of 180,000 voters who are in exile, or at home, and precluded from participating with you in this election by reason of the presence of the public enemy. That you will discharge the sacred duty thus devolved upon you, faithfully, and conscientiously, is best assured by the devotion and ability which you have exhibited in the trying exigencies of the past, in which your patriotism and valor have ever shown conspicuous, and in which your patient sacrifices, services and endurance has heaped upon our noble State an inexhaustible wealth of glory. As I yield to my colleagues the exclusive credit of the measure authorizing this election, and it has been attempted to convert my position upon the subject into capital against me,—I may be exposed for referring again to my views touching the matter. Last year, when I had the honor to address you at Demopolis, I distinctly stated that I considered an election for members of Congress from the State of Missouri, under existing circumstances, impolitic, and that any election not held upon the soil of the State, was never contemplated by the Constitution. And, inasmuch as the law of our State attempted to provide for the exigencies of the revolution—and, in fact, made the best, if not the only provision then possible, to secure the representation of the State, I considered it advisable to adhere to and maintain that last act of sovereign authority, exercised by the General Assembly and Executive of our State, both of whom were elected in a time of profound peace, and in strict conformity with the requirements of law. You will all concede that unless the ordinance of secession and the other acts of our General Assembly which received the Executive approval, are duly ratified when submitted to a vote of the people of Missouri, that all the sacrifices we have made, and all the blood which has been shed in this struggle, are futile so far as relates to the future status of that State. If I had a doubt as to the true sentiment of the people of our State, and did not feel confident that they would gladly cast their destinies with the South by an overwhelming majority, were opportunity presented, I would cease to ask or claim anything from this government on behalf of our State, and would expect every Missourian to stand here solely upon his individual merit. But, believing as I do that at least two-thirds of our people at home are ardent in their devotion to our cause, and that they only await an opportunity to vindicate their principles and loyalty, I have thought that some consideration should be paid to their rights and wishes, especially as we confidently count upon their mature co-operation in probable future exigencies. We know that their representatives, as well as ours, enacted the law of the 8th November, 1861, in which certain gentlemen therein named, were constituted representatives to the Congress of the Confederate States, and two gentlemen named in said act were elected Senators, both branches of the General Assembly participating in the election. The law provides that in event said representatives shall not be admitted to seats in the Congress, they shall remain as Commissioners at the seat of Government until their successors shall be elected by the legal voters in their respective districts, and that the Senators shall hold their offices until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. The object of this law was to provide in the best and only manner then attainable, to secure representation at the seat of government, or to secure the services of certain persons there, to watch over the interests of our State, and attend to the affairs of our people. The law authorizes our Governor to cause an election to be held on the 1st of January, 1862, or as soon thereafter as, in his opinion, a fair and unswayed expression of the public will can be obtained, thus indicating, that as we recovered the State and restored the constitutional government, members of Congress would be selected by the people, to relieve those provided under the exigency of the moment. The representatives elected by our General Assembly, under this law, took their seats in the Provisional Congress without difficulty, and were admitted to seats in the first Congress, under the permanent Government, sub silentio, and it appears to me, that their right to seats in the next and succeeding Congress, until an election can be had by our people, is certainly as unquestionable as their right to seats in the last Congress. It will be remembered that during the revolutionary war, the States of Georgia, South Carolina, New Jersey and others, were almost, if not entirely occupied by the public enemy. Yet we notice no vacancies in the delegations to the Congress from those States, neither do I recollect of any extraordinary laws empowering the army or naval representatives. The inference is clear that the old members held over, until an election could be held by the legal voters in the States, to be represented. Besides, I felt that it was safer to stand by the sovereign act of our State, because I doubted the power, whatever the favorable disposition of Congress to provide representation for our State, by authorizing an election beyond the territorial jurisdiction of our State, if not in direct opposition to our State law. For the permanent Constitution of the Confederate States, stipulates expressly, that "No person shall be a Representative who shall not when elected be an inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen." Now as this election will be held in several different States, it will be difficult for a member elect to establish the fact of a compliance with this constitutional requirement. As we took up arms to vindicate the sovereignty and integrity of our State, and to maintain the Constitutional authorities, I admit that I have had an almost sensitive reluctance to loosen our hold upon the familiar landmarks and usages of our people. One strong hold upon the affection and devotion of our people, is the fact, that ours was and is the only regular and legitimate government of Missouri. It was organized and maintained by the people,—it was the work of their own hands and hearts, and for it they will sacrifice their property and their lives. Hence it was that I hesitated to interpose the action of Congress, in lieu of their own, whereby many thousands of loyal men are precluded from participation. I feared lest when we, a few thousand men out of the State, should take the destiny of those at home into our own hands, it might have a revolutionary aspect and weaken the connecting link which unites us with our down-trodden brethren. These fellow-citizens, are the reasons why I dissented from the advisability of holding this election,—I offered no factious opposition, but yielded to the almost unanimous wishes of my colleagues, to whom I feel bound to say the entire credit of the measure is justly due. But the question of expediency is no longer at issue, and I have only referred to it in order that I may be properly understood in reference to the subject.

Among other fertile developments resulting from the pending election contest, is the anomalous phase which events have assumed for my Congressional District. The contest does not appear to exist between Mr. Norton and myself, but between President Davis and General Sterling Price. This peculiar complexion of affairs is the result of certain intrigues which have been industriously prosecuted (whilst I have been engaged at my post of duty, attending to your affairs) by scheming, self-constituted pretended friends of General Price, for I cannot believe that it has been done by his connivance or consent. These newspaper scribblers and would-be special champions and guardians of General Price, would have you believe that General Price has been shamefully neglected and treated by the President, and that it has been through my potential influence that General Price's eminent abilities and services have been overlooked. That the President is prejudiced against General Price because he is not a West Pointer, and that my defeat will serve as a rebuke to the President, and conduce to the early promotion of General Price to the grade of a full General in the army, or to a position appropriate and commensurate with his claims. Indeed, some of these scribblers have so far insulted your common sense as to devolve upon me the responsibility of the loss of Missouri, Arkansas, New Orleans, Vicksburg, and Lookout Mountain, and I am only surprised they have not charged me with the grounding of Noah's Ark on Mount Ararat, for I did about as much to do with the one as the other!

These volunteer manufacturers of public sentiment, as unintentionally as undeservingly, pay me the compliment of an influence to which I have most assuredly never aspired. For whilst they yield to all my colleagues the staunchest and most unflinching devotion to General Price, they admit, by implication, that I have had the industry, tact or influence to thwart and counteract all their efforts and combinations. This is an equivocal compliment to my colleagues against which I protest. I frankly admit, fellow-citizens, that I did not at Richmond, occupy myself in singing hosannas in praise of General Price. I was not sent there for that purpose, neither did I think it desirable or necessary to General Price. I conceived that the humblest Missourian who had left his home and faithfully discharged his duty in this vital struggle, had equal claims upon my time, attention and services with Gen. Price. I was not sent to Richmond as the special representative of General Price, but of the people of Missouri, and more especially of the 2d Congressional District of that State. I am unwilling to be chalked into Congress upon the credit of Gen. Price, or Gen. Anybody else. If I go there at all, it must be as a representative of the people, not as the servant of any man. If the destiny of Missouri is to be involved in the elevation of Gen. Price, or any other single man, it would be preferable to give to him the appointment of Missouri's representatives. He would then be able to select those most agreeable to himself. I doubt not but that Gen. Price will feel but little obligation to those who attempt to involve him and his personal fortunes in this contest. He would blush to think that his State had fallen so low that her public men were required to bend the knee and attest their fealty to him as a condition precedent to their preferment.

I believe that General Price would scorn to be used as has been attempted here. This is not the first time that quondam friends have attempted to bring Gen. Price and myself in collision. It appears to be a favorite trick of my opponents, and reminiscence of the anecdote of the old lady who lived on the Sangamon river, who sent out her son Joe to fetch his father to supper. Joe, returning without him, upon inquiry, informed her that the old man was drowned in the river and was full of coals. "Eels, Joe!" exclaimed the old woman,—live eels!!—Yes, Ma'm, replied Joe, in a melancholy tone of voice. Well, Joe, exclaimed the old woman, go out to the old man, take all the eels out of him and eat him again!! Now, I protest against this ignoble trap, which these hungry office-seekers are attempting to make out of "Old Pap." He will carry these busy bodies yet for their officious interference in his affairs.

time in indulging in petty animosities. If any man living or dead ever brought to the discharge of the duties of an official position a singleness of heart, eminent and peculiarly appropriate administrative ability, an unimpeachable integrity, unflinching courage, inflexibility of purpose, and a conscientious appreciation of duty, and the immense responsibilities devolving on him, that man is Jefferson Davis. Missourians are the last men who should ever complain of him, for no man, I care not whence he comes, has manifested a more active and generous sympathy for our people and our State, or given more practical evidences of his appreciation. Whatever he has had power to do consistently with duty, he has ever done for us. I have heard him speak in terms of eloquent praise of this brigade which I will not attempt to imitate or portray. I believe that to-day Missouri has a greater number of appointments, civil and military, in proportion to her number of men in the field than any State in the Confederacy.

In the building of ships, the production and manufacture of iron, belting, powder and innumerable other necessary articles of supply, Missouri ingenuity, skill and enterprise is fully represented. It is to your valor and services, I admit, that much of these advantages may be attributed, yet I am compelled to acknowledge the fact, that in no single instance have I ever known any Missourian of merit, fail to receive respectful and appropriate consideration at the hands of the proper officers of this Government. And yet, fellow-citizens, I recognize here, attempts to place you and our State in a false attitude, by getting up the old cry about West Point. Politicians are too shrewd to assail the President directly, they can find no vulnerable point in his political or official armor against which they will dare direct a lance. They approach their object indirectly and by seeking to undermine public confidence in West Point or what is denominated West Point policy, they hope to engulf the administration and the President in its overthrow. This pretended popular clamor against West Point is a favorite resource of the discontented sofs and is but a flimsy mask to their real designs when once you charge the abattis. I admit that I have sustained to the extent of my poor ability, the administration both in its policy and measures and if returned to Congress will continue to do so as far as I conscientiously can. If there are any measures of the administration which you disapprove let us debate them. Do not permit yourselves to be entrapped into an implied opposition to the administration, by this absurd anti-West Point clamor. If you wish my defeat, put it on some reasonable grounds, but for the sake of yourselves and our State do not let it be ascribed to any want of confidence in the administration. Such would not in my opinion be a truthful reflection of the sentiment of Missouri. As for the office, I candidly assure you I would not turn my hand over for it. Congress I have been informed, was once a place of honor and profit; times I am induced to believe have altered much since then. The pay at Richmond is about $8 per day, whilst the price for board, when I left, was $30 per day. Now those who are impatient of sudden wealth, may perform the subtraction and I will freely divide the profits of the place. As to the honor, I think that is to be found here, in this brigade. So you may believe me, when I assure you, that it is not for the office that I am interested, but I should regret to see these scheming newspaper scribblers succeed in seducing you into a vote, which may be interpreted into an opposition to the administration and a sympathy with the anti-conscript sofs, all because of their intrigues to get up a pro-Price and anti-Davis West Point-Harris contest. I only wish fellow-citizens, that I were a worthy exponent either of the administration or of West Point. I feel that my opponents pay me an unintentional compliment by pretending to ascribe to me such a position. It is true that I received the better part of my education at West Point, and that I have ever held that institution in high estimation. I only regret that circumstances prevented my profiting by all its advantages. I believe that that institution was unequalled for training and fitting officers for the line and staff corps of the army. God alone can endow a man with the qualities and capacities suited for a general officer. Perhaps Divine Providence sometimes permits them to stray into West Point. Perhaps I was taken away from West Point to be fitted for the position, for it is by no means certain that I ever should have attained the grade of a General officer, had I been permitted to remain there. It is no less a fact that whilst at West Point, I was the recipient of no special preferments calculated to bribe or influence my judgment in after life, unless perhaps, my promotion, in my third class year, to the grade of corporal be so considered, but even that preferment was of but short duration, for one day to my surprise, confusion and the destruction of all my youthful military aspiration, I was summarily reduced to the ranks for the grave offense of wearing long beard at Sunday morning inspection, when I assure you, that I was innocent of the idea that the fur on my face could be mistaken for beard.

Domestic considerations induced me to resign afterwards, and I have since entered into three wars and in every instance as a high private in the ranks. In fact there are those here present who have served with me in the ranks in five different wars, if I may so far dignify them. I entered what was called the Iowa war, when ten or twelve years of age; afterwards I served in the Mormon war; I served as a private in the war between the United States and Mexico until promoted by President Polk. I afterwards, when peace was proclaimed, entered the Mexican service as a private in the "primeiro regimiento Estrangeros," and lastly, I entered into this war in the same honorable capacity of high private. In fact, fellow-citizens, I am personally acquainted with several West Pointers who are now and have been since the war, high privates in the army of N. B. Virginia under General Lee. They are young gentlemen of good connections; have graduated some on the two and others on the three year course at West Point. They make fine soldiers and bear excellent reputations, and yet with all this attributed partiality and prejudice of the President he finds no good place for them. I must say that general policy. The only men in the service of the United States who made any reputation for themselves in the first years of the war, and who manifested the slightest element of chivalry and honorable principle, were McClellan, Fitz John Porter, Stone and other West Pointers, all of whom scorned to become the tools of unprincipled politicians, and had, for a time, the honor and courage to resist the tide of popular clamor and maintain the dignity of their elevated positions. They resisted the low, grovelling, fanatical requirements of the unprincipled action in power at the North, until political intriguers found more fitting tools, and then from position and substituted in their stead the popular political favorites of the hour. In our Confederacy I will assume that we have been fortunate in the selection of a President who has had the good sense and firmness to disregard their political intrigues, and moral courage to pursue an enlightened policy, unwavering by the ebullient popular clamor, which disappointed have sought at times to stir up and now that three years of the war has transpired, how stands the case? At the Confederacy can boast a Stonewall Jackson, a Sidney Johnston, a Beauregard, a Kirby Smith, and a host of such immortal in vindication of the alleged West Point policy, the United States boast, in vindication of its political policy, Grant, Butler, Sherman, Furches, Sickles & id name. Even admitting that the admin-for such purposes. All these side issues, however, are injected into the canvass for no practical good, either to yourself, our State or the country. It would be a master stroke of policy should our enemies destroy our confidence in our public men. I claim no infallibility for the President or the Administration, that is an attribute which belongs to the church, not the State, and besides, the blockade prevents its importation at present from Rome. Many acts of the administration may appear at times reprehensible and even imbecile, yet you must remember that you get but an ex-parte statement of the case. When sound policy and a due regard for the public interests shall authorize an exposition of all the facts, in many, many, cases your admiration for the forbearance and self-sacrificing patriotism of the administration, will far exceed the prodigal censure which is now at times so freely indulged. Let us go steadily forward, trusting in God and the future.

Now, fellow-citizens, I must conclude. I regret that such a necessity should exist as to require me to embrace in my remarks some of the subjects of my discourse. I have simply endeavored to represent our State and your interest at Richmond, and if any Missourian can say that any interest or business ever entrusted to me has ever been neglected, or has not received prompt and efficient action, let him speak! And if it is your pleasure to give me a success, believe me, that I will welcome him with a smile of genuine good humor, and without a tinge of displeasure or resentment.

as far as my observation extends, West Pointers are not usually characterized by any peculiar hungering after office, although as a general proposition their education and qualifications fit them peculiarly for certain positions. But let the tree be judged by its fruits!—Let us examine as to the working of this West Point policy which is charged so persistently against the President and contrast it with the popular clamor policy, of our adversaries. Let the developments of the present war, which affords a sufficiently extended area, vindicate or condemn this mooted West Point policy, and forever put at rest, this fruitful source of demagoguism. Let us assume that the United States has made the experiment of both the West Point and political general policy. The only men in the service of the United States who made any reputation for themselves in the first years of the war, and who manifested the slightest element of chivalry and honorable principle, were McClellan, Fitz John Porter, Stone and other West Pointers.

History has shown a partiality for this so called West Point policy, in all candor, would you wish us to imitate our enemies, whose policy is obnoxious to the objection of the possibility of supplanting our present immortal leaders by such a foul conglomeration as we find at present at the head of the United States armies? Selfish designing politicians would be glad to have as a leader to their anti-West Point party such a man as Sterling Price, his name and services would give power and respectability to their combinations, but I have too much respect for his good sense and sound practical judgment to believe that he will ever permit himself to be used by such men or for such purposes. All these side issues, however, are injected into the canvass for no practical good, either to ourselves, our State or the country. It would be a master stroke of policy should our enemies destroy our confidence in our public men. I claim no infallibility for the President or the Administration.

TO THE MISSOURIANS IN THE ARMY!

We, the undersigned, citizens of Missouri, temporarily sojourning in the city of Richmond, having seen a printed handbill signed, "A Missourian," which reflects dishonor upon our State, and all our Representatives in Congress, have deemed it incumbent upon us to investigate the truth of the charges contained in said publication, we being at the seat of Government and within reach of the necessary facilities thereto.

After mature consideration of the publication we find most of the charges of a general character and not susceptible of investigation. The only charges within our reach are those against the member from the Second District, (Gen. Harris.) The undersigned, after a careful and thorough examination into the charges, unhesitatingly come to the conclusion that they are utterly false and without the slightest foundation. We have been close observers of the actions of Gen. Harris, and have known intimately many of our fellow men from our State who have had every kind of business to transact here. He has ever been courteous, industrious and watchful of their interests, and in no single instance have we learned of any charge being made, or compensation received.

As to the assertion that our member from the Second District has on deposit in a bank in this city the sum of $150,000, which the publication insinuates that he made by fees and perquisites, we have made enquiry at every bank in the city, and have been assured by the proper officers, that he has not now, and never has had any money to his credit, and we unhesitatingly pronounce the assertion unqualifiedly false.

We pass with contempt and disgust the unfeeling allusion to Gen. Harris' serious accident, which for a time, prevented his personal attendance in Congress. It is well known to us and others that during his confinement, he was mentally laboring for the benefit of his constituents, and that his room was nightly the resort of our Delegation for consultation and co-operation.

It is false that Gen. Harris did not make his appearance in Congress during the session, and the writer referred to knows it for he saw and conversed with Gen. Harris in the halls of Congress, and it is well known to us, that, although a cripple, he was for some time, before the adjournment, constantly in attendance at Congress and the Departments, attending to the interests of his constituents, and all Missourians, who asked his services. The ability, energy and kindness of this gentleman is known to all Missourians who have visited here, and many of you in the army, it is therefore needless to refer farther to them.

After investigation of the charges against Gen. Harris and finding them utterly without foundation, we discredit the whole publication as regards the other members of the Delegation.

In conclusion, we do not hesitate to pronounce the handbill a tissue of falsehood and misrepresentation from beginning to end. It is a scurrilous, slanderous and disgraceful publication, unworthy of any Missourian, and is the production of one who is now under suspension, with charges filed against him which will doubtless cashier him. He is a disappointed and unworthy aspirant for office, and one who our Delegation properly declined to recommend.

The undersigned make these representations to you without solicitation after a careful investigation, from a sense of duty, to vindicate our State from the foul dishonor sought to be cast upon her.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI.

To all who shall see these Presents---Greeting:

Know Ye, that J. C. F. JACKSON, Commander in Chief of the Missouri State Guard, expressing the utmost confidence in the Fidelity, Patriotism, and Valor of Thomas A. Campbell, in and about the State of Missouri.

*Adj. Genl.

Commander in Chief thereof.

Know Ye, that J. C. F. JACKSON, Commander-in-Chief of the Missouri State Guard, reposing the utmost confidence in the Fidelity, Patriotism, and Valor of Thomas M. O'Carroll, do hereby appoint him Adjutant General of the Second Military District.

Now, Therefore, In the name and in behalf of the State of Missouri, J. C. F. JACKSON, Commander-in-Chief thereof, do hereby Commission him Brigadier General of said District; subject to the confirmation of the Missouri Senate and do authorize and empower him to discharge the duties of said office according to law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Missouri to be hereunto affixed: Done at the City of Jefferson in the County of St. Louis on the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord one Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty _____ and of the Independence of the United States the Eighty _____ and of the State of Missouri the _____ day of _____

BY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF:

J. C. F. Jackson

Recorded _____

Harriet Hough, Adjutant General Mo. State Guard.

Secretary of State.

C. F. Jackson

TO THE VOTERS OF MISSOURI,

SOLDIERS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS:

The law of the Confederate States approved January 12th, 1864, provides for holding an election for Representatives in the Congress of the Confederate States, from the State of Missouri. I have the honor to announce myself as a candidate to represent the 2d Congressional District of Missouri, comprising the counties of Marion, Monroe, Ralls, Audrain, Boone, Calloway, Warren, Montgomery, Lincoln and St. Charles.

To many of you my antecedents are well known; but, as the election is by general ticket, a brief reference thereto, may not be deemed inappropriate. Suffice it to say, that I left my home, in common with many of you, without hesitation or previous preparation; on foot, and as a high private, at the first call of our Governor, to rendezvous at Brownsville. Whilst en route to the place of rendezvous, I was overtaken by a special courier from the Governor, who delivered to me a commission as Brigadier General of the Missouri State Guard, accompanied by orders from Maj. Gen'l. Sterling Price, assigning me to duty north of the Missouri river. I addressed myself at once to the raising and organization of my Division in my military district, and successfully crossed it over the Missouri river, and united with Gen'l. Price, a few days before the battle of Lexington, which resulted in the surrender of the Federal forces in that city, and added such an imperishable laurel to the merited glory of Missouri's favorite chieftain.

Upon the re-assembling of our State Legislature, of which I was a member, and Speaker pro tem. of the House, I participated actively in all those measures deemed expedient for the honor and integrity of our State—to protect the persons and property of our people, and to unite indissolubly their destiny with that of our Southern brethren. Under the law approved Nov. 8th, 1861, I was elected by the General Assembly to represent the 2d Congressional District at the seat of Government of the Confederate States.

Since my sojourn in Richmond, I have endeavored conscientiously; and industriously, to discharge my whole duty to our State, and our people. No Missourian has ever been so humble, as to make in vain, a requisition upon my time, attention, or services. I have endeavored to make punctuality and promptitude, distinguishing characteristics; and the high appreciation entertained by the government, for the distinguished valor and patriotic sacrifices of our people, have in a great measure aided me in my endeavor. It is with great pleasure that I can bear testimony, that in no single instance have I ever known any prejudice or injury result to any Missouri interest, or Missourian, through any indifference or negligence of any member of the Missouri delegation.

Fellow-Missourians, the clouds are lifting from the horizon of our future. The earnest and determined efforts of a gallant people, are upon the point of reaping their inevitable and merited rewards. One more gallant and stalwart effort, and we may not only indulge in the visions, but the realities of home. No true Missourian wishes ever again to stand upon the threshold of his home, except as a freeman, and under the recognized starred saltier flag of our glorious Confederacy. And should it be your pleasure to retain me, in the position I have occupied, I can only pledge you my unflinching devotion to our cause, and a continuance of my most earnest efforts to promote the best interests of yourselves, our State, and our common country.

It would afford me great pleasure to visit you in the field, and greet again those who have by their devotion and valor contributed such brilliant glories to adorn the arms of our State. But my first duty is to devote myself to the business of those of you in the field, which has been entrusted to my care. This business accumulates during the vacation, and the necessary absence of some of my colleagues. I hope soon, however, to have placed your affairs in a proper state of forwardness, and will avail myself of the opportunity of visiting such portions of the army as are within reach.

In the meantime, submitting the whole subject to your enlightened judgment,

I have the honor to be

Respectfully, your Obt. Serv't,

THOS. A. HARRIS.

Sir.

In consequence of a severe wound which I received in the battle of Cedar Run,
- the ball entering my left side passing in the vicinity of a seriously injuring my left lung, also ~~destroying~~ an important nerve, causing partial paralysis of my left arm, thereby rendering me unfit for active service. I tender you my resignation as Adjutant 48th Ala. Regt.

Hoping that it will be accepted I have the honor Sir to be Most respectfully

Yours obt. Servt

Adj't 48th Ala. Regt.

In answer to your letter of 25th Aug. regarding S. D. Harris Adjutant Regt. the same was sent to the next General Regt. this position is such a scandalous one. I am satisfied that he will long remain unfit for active service, and indeed his disability may become permanent.

Hon. James A. Seddon

Secretary of War -

I know the writer of the foregoing letter and likewise his distinguished father to whom he alludes. This father was once a member of Congress from Virginia and afterwards one of our Ministers abroad. The young man seems to have won his spurs fairly and is recommended by his superior officers. I ask you to examine his case and hope you will promote him as he deserves. I recommend him, and ask his promotion.

Hon James A Seddons Secy of War Richmond

Sir

I hereby tender the unconditional resignation of my commission as Assistant Surgeon P.A.C.S. My reason for this step is the state of my health. I am a victim to Chronic Rheumatism brought on by a campaign in Miss. I have been "absent sick" from my command for more than two months, and have applied to the Surgeon General for transfer to Hospital service. He has not granted my application though accompanied by Surgeon's certificate of unfitness for field service and my only recourse is to resign. I have been in the service since the beginning of the war and shall enter the service in another capacity at once but I shall no longer hold the commission or exercise the duties of an Assistant Surgeon in the field, for the simple reason that my health will not allow of it. Very respectfully your obed^t serv

Mrs. Vivian Nichols,
10800 Flamingo Road, Beverly Park,
Detroit, Michigan.

The records show that William E. Harris, not found as William Henry Harris, 2nd Lieutenant, Confederate States Army, was appointed from Mississippi May 20, 1861.

On December 27, 1861, he was ordered to report for duty to Major General Leonidas Polk at Columbus, Kentucky.

Later he appears to have served as Aide-de-Camp on General Wheeler's Staff and was captured at Duck River, also shown Shilohville, Tennessee June 27, 1862.

He was imprisoned at Johnson's Island, Ohio and was there paroled and forwarded to Point Lookout, Maryland for exchange February 20, 1863.

He was surrendered by General Taylor and finally paroled at Columbus, Mississippi May 17, 1863.

Stamped envelope returned herewith.

Quartermaster Office
Demings, N. M., Aug. 5, 1864

Colonel,

I have this day been furnished with Special Orders to 8th April 11, 1864, Adjt. & Engr. Genl's Office, giving the names of Quartermaster's ordered dropped from the rolls, for failure to execute Orders, my name I discover is on the list, with orders to report to you. which I have the honor now to do by letter this order furnished to day is the first information I have had of the action of the Department.

I was appointed by the President, Adj. Genl. on the 19th of the same month of Capt. 4 Nov. 1861, on the 19th of the same month I executed my bond and mailed from Salt Lake City, to the 1st of Nov. but I never had any acknowledgment of its receipt, but receiving answer from the Engr. Genl. to letter mailed to him at the same time, I had supposed that my bond was also received.

About the middle of June 1862, I recd. from the President, the appointment of Brig. Genl. Quartermaster with the rank of Major referring back to the 11th Nov. 1862, I was then in the Army of Genl. Sherman. The nature of the service of the Army was such at that time that I did not ask for leave of absence (which I would be enabled to return to when my term was to expire to a bond) until late in May. My application for leave of absence when made were rejected, I then applied for transfer and was finally ordered to report to you early in June 1861, since which time I have been in the service of your Department in the most slow, and thank me, not asked for leave of absence.

During the 24 Dec, 1861, I have been continuously in the service and have been every day under orders. I have not had a leave of absence for a single day. Though I have not been in stout health, I have been every day at my post of duty.

As I am in good health, I am in a position to help in my case. I am in the service of the country and I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health and I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health and I am in the best of health.
I am in the best of health and I am in the
and I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health and I am in the best of health.

If the President will permit me to return to my acquaintance in the line of my service, I will be in the best of health and I am in the best of health.
I am in the best of health and I am in the
and I am in the best of health. I am in the best of health and I am in the best of health.

I am very respectfully Yours and

Dear Brother in Christ

June 15, 1861.

Beloved

Thus the 8th of July I addressed your letter, in substance to Concord. In 8th. & 10th. I drop your office (Special) in which I was ordered to report to you, a copy of and letter of, I have said enclosed. My official business was such that I could not include the possibility of my reporting to you in person at an early date.

Subsequently I applied to your Register to be relieved of duty, that I might have an early opportunity to execute my bond, & have been expecting almost daily for the past month to have an officer to relieve me. - Today I am surprised to receive from Mr. Fayton a letter, copy of which I have enclosed, this letter seems to contain all the news of my leaving my business here in the manner of our agent while I am absent to attend to the execution of a bond, my official business here is of a character that will not in anywise permit of this. I have a large amount of property in charge and I am not willing, for my own safety as well as that of the government to leave it in the hands of any one not author's to accept for its thus I am here here by circumstances entirely beyond my control, which by special order to St. 11 April

Major A. H. Cook,

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 10th Inst. The Circular mentioned not enclosed.

On the 31st of July last, I reported under your orders at General Johnston's Head Quarters at Jackson, Miss. and was directed to report to Major A. M. Barbour, Chief Quartermaster, which I did the same date; since which time I have acted under Major Barbour's verbal directions, all my efforts to elicit orders aiding me in organizing an Inspection of Field Transportation in the Department have been unavailing, and I am left without any orders from this Department.
My position here is without authority from the Department Commandant, or his Chief in the Quartermaster's Department to act officially, without which nothing resulting in much good to the Public Service can be accomplished; taking this view of the subject, and the recent appointments of Major & Mr. Payton, to this District whose duties will include ~~nothing~~ I would most respectfully ask is reassigned, when it can be done without inconvenience to the Public Service.

This communication is anticipated but a few days by the appointment of Major Payton, as the end of this month was the latest limit, that I would await orders here, without reporting back to you.

I have the honor to be

Very respectfully

Your obt. Servt.

My dear Sir,

I started up my application for transfer to day with a good prospect that it would be granted. — But before it reaches Head Quarters, I am ordered to Montgomery Ala. Instantly. I suppose the business there though pressing is temporary, if my application for transfer is granted it will follow me.

I am now busy packing up to leave, I receive orders about 30 minutes ago.

Very Respectfully

I have been waiting to hear of Phillips' arrival but have come to the conclusion that he will take his own time. I had enclosed an order to go to Florida to have your bond signed. (Could you not have sent the bond by your clerk) which I hope you will have done in the shortest possible time, and return and continue your present plans.

By the time you return I hope to have funds to close up the loose accounts, and I hope you supplied with funds. I cannot ship bonds he finds at market or short of Florida! Your advances cannot be placed without public's sign.

I beg leave to call your attention to an abstract of back debt for Subsistence Purchased and issued in the 4th Qr 1861, and paid in the 1st Qr 1862, which exhibits the payments of the unpaid purchases, reported in the 4th Quarter 1861.

In bringing my business to a close in your Department, I have only to regret that the great press of business on me, in the Quartermaster's Department, closing my business in the Subsistence Department, has delayed my returns to your office.

Hoping my business will close satisfactorily and that we may soon realize a perfect and lasting Peace, in our common country.

Major

I arrived in this place last evening - today I had an interview with Genl Antonio. With respect to the subject of animals, he says that he cannot supply any mules or horses from the stock he has now on hand, the supply in the Department being insufficient for want of means to have he further says that they can be supplied by purchase in Western Texas, and from Mexico, but that it requires specie to purchase in either of these markets; - the Genl expresses great willingness to sell you, provided the proper funds are furnished, he promised me a written reply to your communication, which I will receive in a day or two and will enclose it to you, in my next letter. Genl Antonio failed to bring any horses or mules from his possession in the, but had the intention to have the animals that he ordered the comprador with, estimated by Genl Antonio, at seven thousand heads.

After more days will close up my mission in this State when I will proceed to Genl Antonio's camp. I send this by a party now ready to leave for the South. And write you again as soon as I receive Genl Antonio's answer to the application made to him this day for mules.

WAR DEPARTMENT

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE

WASHINGTON

Mr. W. W. Harris, Jr., 1010 West 56th Street, Kansas City,
Missouri.

The records of this office show that William W. Harris, not borne as as Acting Assistant Surgeon, of Howard County, Missouri, entered into a contract at Springfield, Missouri, Confederate States Army, January 12, 1862, 1862 a new contract was made at the rate of $100 per month. It was stated that the services were necessary because five of the medical officers of the Brigade were left with the wounded after the battle of Elkhorn.

He is shown to have served with the 1st (afterwards called 2nd) Regiment Missouri Infantry, and by order dated June 19, 1862, was assigned to the Department of Northern Virginia.

On August 16, 1862 he was appointed Surgeon, Confederate States Army.

He was assigned to the Command of Colonel T. J. Rhett, by order dated October 30, 1862, and on May 6, 1863, was ordered to the Department of East Tennessee. On August 1, 1863 he became attached to the 58th Regiment North Carolina Infantry.

His name appears on a Roll of Supernumerary Medical Officers in the Army of Tennessee, paroled in accordance with the terms of a Military and Major General W. T. Sherman. The roll is not dated but shows him paroled at Greensboro, North Carolina in May, 1865.

No record has been found of the service in the Confederate States Army of a man named Hector Harris, but it is proper to state that the collection of Confederate Records of file in this office is far from complete.

However, there are vouchers on file with the Confederate Records which show that one Hector Harris of Bedford County, Virginia, was paid for the services of a slave named Frank, employed on public work at Lynchburg, Virginia, by the Confederate Government. The name Hector Harris also appears as signature to a receipt, dated May 28, 1864 at Lynchburg, for $500 paid by a Confederate Quartermaster for one mule. In the same year he signed a petition to have a certain physician exempted from military service.

Account by Mr. W. W. Harris Jr

Dr. William Warren Harris (born October 14, 1834; died April 19, 1922), while a citizen of Westport (now a part of Kansas City), Missouri, enlisted in the Confederate Army, in September, 1861, and was soon afterward commissioned surgeon in Col. Congreve Jackson's regiment. He served under General Sterling Price in the Battle of Drywood Creek, Vernon County, Missouri, and in the Battle of Lexington, Missouri; was with Beauregard in the Second Battle of Corinth, Mississippi; was transferred to General Robert E. Lee's Army in Virginia in 1862, and served under him in the "Seven Days Battle around Richmond", the Second Battle of Manassas, in Virginia, the Battles of South Mountain and Antietam, in Maryland; with Thomas J. ("Stonewall") Jackson at the Battle of Frederick City, Maryland; with General Braxton Bragg at Battles of Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Dalton, Georgia, Resaca, Georgia, and Kenesaw Mountain, Georgia. He was with General Hood at Atlanta, Georgia, Duck River, Tennessee, Franklin, Tennessee, Nashville, Tennessee; and after Hood's retreat from Tennessee in the winter of 1864, following that series of battles, he was transferred to the army of General Joseph E. Johnston, being Brigade Surgeon in General Stovall's Division, under whom he served until Johnston's surrender to General Sherman, April 26, 1865, near Raleigh, North Carolina. Dr. Harris was mustered out of service at Greensboro, North Carolina ("Old Guilford Court House"). In the line of duty, he was in the States of Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland and Tennessee.

With reference to Post at City Point.

June 24/63

W. W. Harris.

Surgeon in charge.

City Point Va
Jan'y 4th 1863

Sir.

I think it proper to notify you that in accordance with a furlough granted me by the Surgeon General & through the Secretary of War by Gen G. H. Smith, I left my ^{post} at this date in charge of Asst Surgeon J. E. Smith of the S. Carolina Hospital in Petersburg. My case was made a special exception, as the circumstances were peculiar. My furlough allows me sixty days absence.
As soon as the object, for which the furlough was obtained, is accomplished, I shall be at my post.
Smith will go to City Point whenever a true boat comes.

Very respectfully,
H. W. Harris.
Surgeon in charge.

E. S. Gaislard.
